Patterns of Destiny

Arnold High School

New Kensington-Arnold School District

Arnold, Pennsylvania

Foreword

"The tissue of the life to be
We weave with colors all our own
And in the fields of destiny
We reap as we have sown."

From Birth to Death

Unaware of the first form
Completed in his behalf,
Man moves unendingly
Over and under
Around and through
A series of patterns
Until his death.

Dimly traced in the half-light of dawn,
Boldly outlined in the bright glare of noon,
Faintly discerned in the obscure dusk of evening,
These patterns chart man's progress.

Bound by the covers of this book,
Somewhat hidden or drawn in detail on its pages,
Are the "Patterns of Destiny."

Dedication

"Our destiny exercises
Its influence over us
Even when, as yet,
We have not learned its nature;

It is our future
That lays down
The law of our today."

Annually from the portals of Arnold High School
Graduates have moved silently,
Yet unendingly
Across the plains of indecision,
Through the mills of immediate occupation,
Or within the walls of further preparation
To take their ultimate stance
In the ranks of society.

Among them
Are doctors, lawyers, nurses, and teachers;
Preachers, priests, technicians, and diplomats;
Laborers, beauticians, scientists, and housewives.
No prophet, sage, or seer
Can wholly predict
Or unerringly tabulate
The final world destruction or edification
To be derived from this ever lengthening parade.

Arnold High School Graduates

teachers

For many years at Arnold High School
Boys and girls
Have been marking forms,
Mastering skills,
Developing talents,
Reaching goals,
And emulating personages.

It is to these graduates of Arnold High School
That this book is dedicated.
Whatever vocation, profession, or career followed,
All of Arnold's graduates
Receive this honor.

Treasured

What are we doing here? Why all the fuss?
About cramming, and studying, and cheating—who us?
They said, "You're promoted; freshmen no more."
We gazed out the window, looked down at the floor.
With all these new teachers, giving homework stacked high,
We kinda wished we were back in old junior high.
"There's no fooling around; no if's, and's, or but's."

"Don't do this!" "Don't do that!", but gee, "Don't do what?"
"Watch out for the seniors and juniors as well;
Stay away from the principal", we heard them all tell.
We had nine years behind us, only three more to go;
Just why was this year moving so slow?
But some how it worked out, and the days did pass by.
Boy, what a beginning in old senior high!

Then we were juniors; a smooth part we played—
We bossed the rookies; seniors we obeyed.
Who could ever forget all that this year took in?
Like our '64 football team. (Why did Montour have to win?)
And selling at the games was always fun,
Though there never were enough jobs for everyone.

Memories

We were met with some laughter, and many a tear,
Big dates, and small dates, all in one year.
And last but not least, came our prom—what a day!
Our girls looked so precious. Our boys led the way.
Our prom decorations caught all as they gazed
At murals and paintings; the crowd we amazed.

At last we were seniors; we held our heads high.
We made it our best year; then said goodbye.
Goodbye, once-feared principal, who made us to see
Men and women of merit, we all ought to be.
Goodbye, loyal teachers, you've taught us a lot.
The treasures you've given us could never be bought.

Goodbye, noisy hallways, slight glances, and tests.
Goodbye, all the games that proved we were best.
And goodbye, Alma Mater, in our hearts you will stay.
You've given us something we can never repay.
You've given us knowledge, both bold and true.
Yes, you've given us everything—

Goodbye, ORANGE AND BLUE!!

"Coaching was never this tough."

Future scholars?

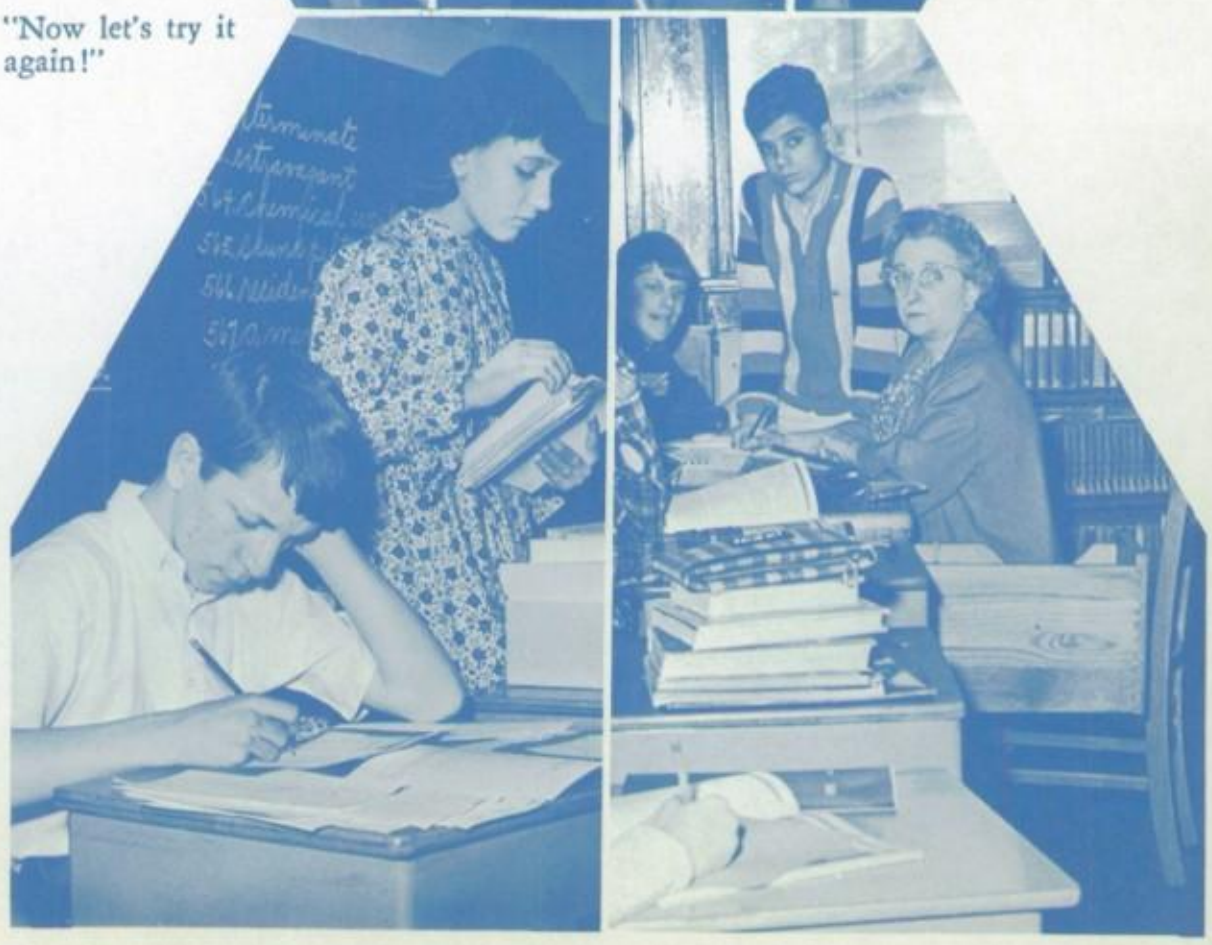
"Who's the wise guy?"

"Sure, we'll smile for the picture."

"Here we go again!"

"Do you promise to stop hiding in my piano?"

"Now let's try it again!"

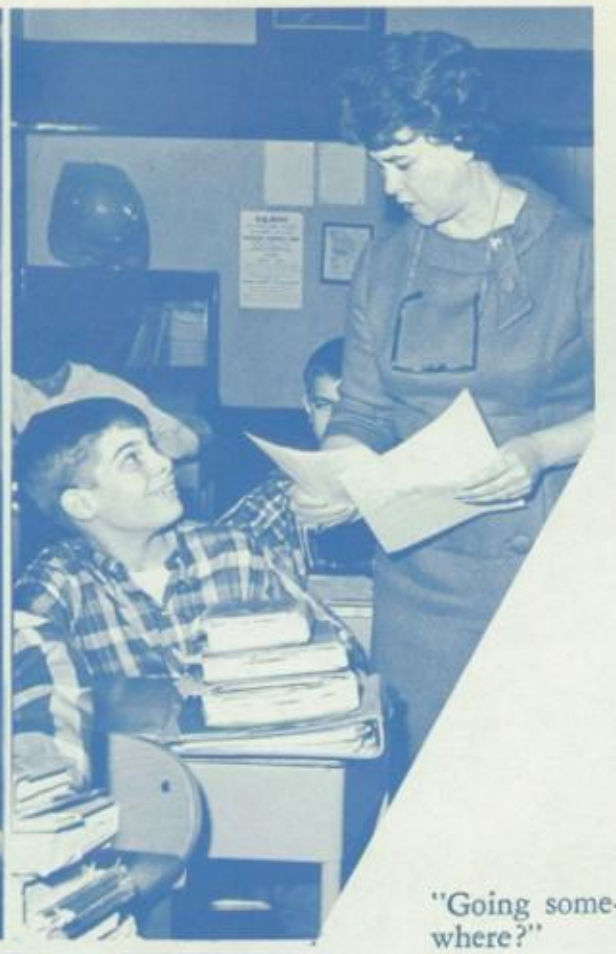


"Don't look now but we're being watched!"

"I said, 'Knock before you enter!' "

"Now you're getting it!"

"Look, who's the boss—me or you?"



"Haven't we seen him someplace before?"

"Going somewhere?"

"If I've told you once . . ."

ACTIVITIES AND CLUBS

ARLION

Mrs. Virginia Ursic, Advisor

Each year the Arlion Staff attempts to outdo its previous efforts in producing our outstanding yearbook. The staff members gain valuable experience in preparing write-ups and soliciting ads. The Arlion Staff portray many treasured memories of your high school years in the hopes that it will help you relive these memories.

FOOTBALL CLUB

Mr. Frank Martin, Advisor

The Football Club is composed of members of the football team. That purpose is to supplement the training on the field through classroom instruction.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Miss Suzanne Fryer, Advisor

The aim of this organization is to help develop a better homemaker for tomorrow. It endeavors to work for good home and family life for all, to provide wholesome individual and group recreation, and to further the interest of home economics. "Toward New Horizons," the motto adopted by the club, is fitting and appropriate.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Miss Ruth Cribbs and Mrs. Virginia Ursic

Advisors

The Future Teachers of America has two main purposes. To learn about the teaching profession, its opportunities, and its responsibilities, and to explore our own interests and abilities in the various fields of teaching.

HONOR TO ARNOLD HIGH

Oh, hail, oh hail to Arnold High
Our Alma Mater too.
We'll sing out the story and tell of the glory
Of the school we love so well.
Oh hail, oh hail to Arnold High
Our Alma Mater too.
And we'll fight, fight, fight
With all our might
For the honor of Arnold High!

GENERAL INFORMATION

All students interested in interscholastic sports are required to report for practice in the various sports at the beginning of each of their respective seasons. Announcements are made over the P. A. when practice sessions begin. Students must have their parents permission in writing and be examined by the School Doctor before they are permitted to begin practice. Any questions pertaining to interscholastic sports can be answered by the coaching staff or Faculty Manager.

CODE FOR LETTER AWARDS

The Letter and Sweater Awards Committee shall consist of the following: High School Principal, Faculty Manager, Head Coaches of all the sports that may meet in interscholastic competition, Band and Choir Directors.

1. Quarters, innings, time or games necessary in each sport and musical organization for Letters or Awards.

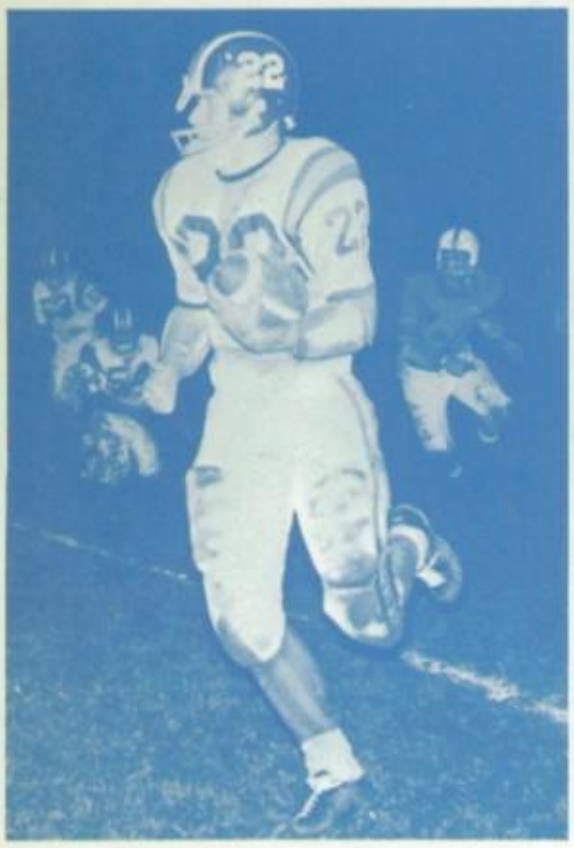
It's unanimous, a touchdown!



"Hey Coach, what do I do now?"

The 1965 football season was a sad one in more than one way for Arnold High School's Lions. Not only did they fail to obtain a winning season, but this season also marked the end of the highly successful coaching career of the Lion's head coach, Frank Martin.

With only two regular players returning from last year's A.I.C. championship team, this year's squad was greatly lacking experience. But this did not stop the Lions who were game and played many exciting ball games in which they just fell short of winning. Throughout the season the players and coaches displayed a "never say die" attitude.

"I think we need more support in the back, Geeg."

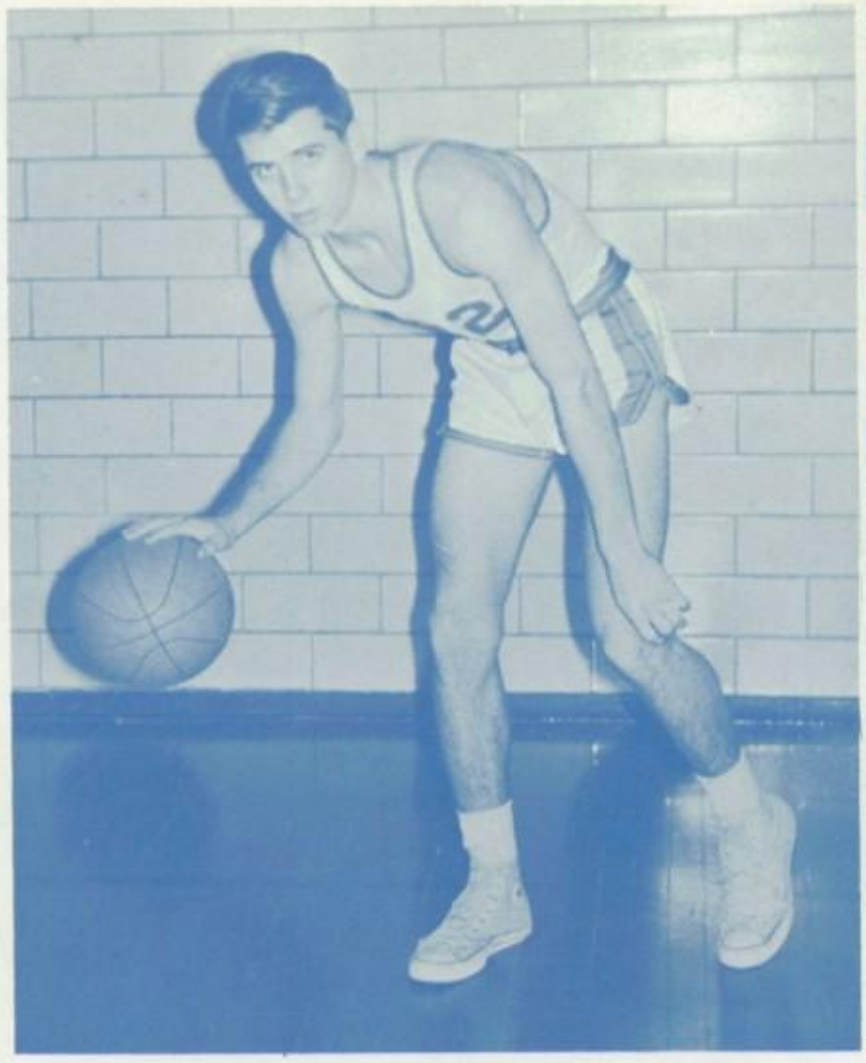
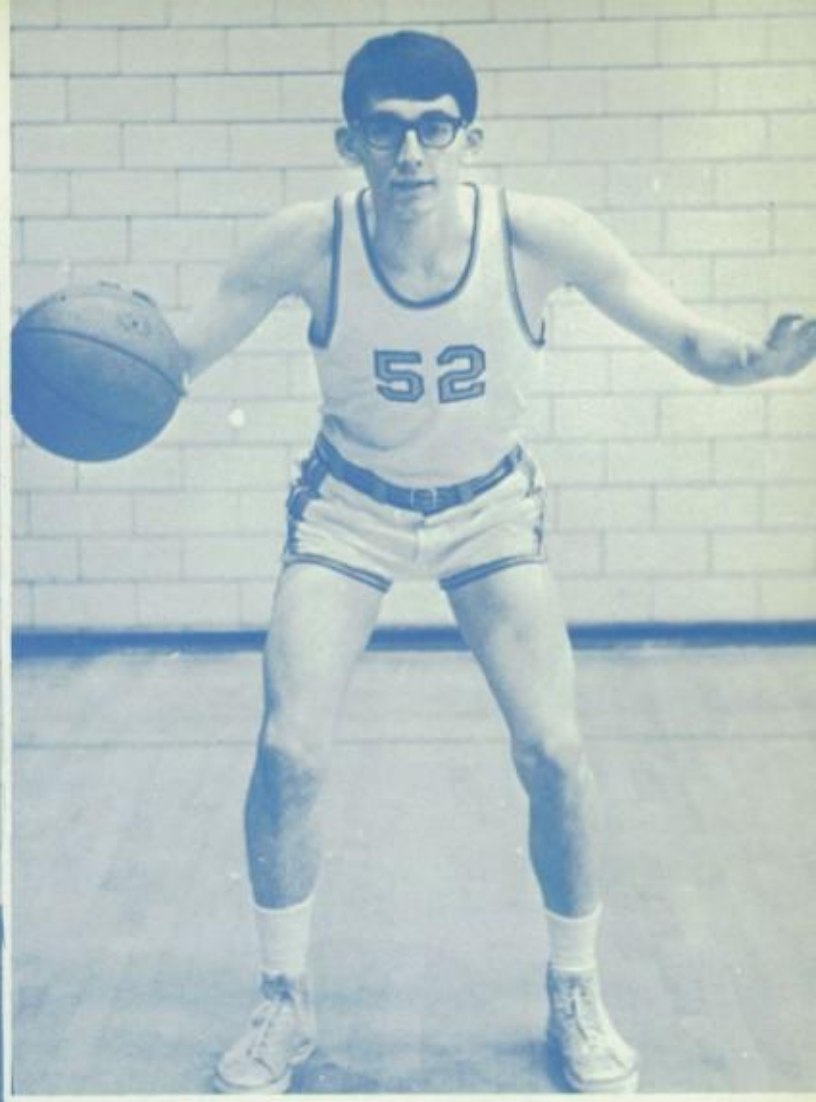
Two toward the record



Bob Malecki



Angelo Enciso

There're two!

The 1965-66 basketball season brought with it many highlights for the fans of the Lion five. For the first time since the Lions entered the strong Section I competition were they able to come through with a winning season. After roaring through their eight exhibition games undefeated, the Lions let it be known that they had come into their own and were rated as a strong contender for the section title. But in the first league game they suffered a defeat at the hands of the Har-Brack Tigers. However, they came bouncing back and won four of the six remaining games on the first half of their schedule. Playing spastically the rest of the season, the Lions acquired their best record in six years.

One of the bright spots of the season was the home game against Ford City. It was in the highly contested game that co-captain Dan Barbiaux amassed 34 points for a new school record. Consequently, through the fine shooting and all-around play of the Arnold five they were able to claim the first victory over a Ford City team since the 1959 season.

Dear Coach Marino:

My heartiest congratulations to you and to your fine team on taking the WPIAL Championship.

I can well understand what a thrilling victory this was for Arnold! It was certainly the total effort of a great team that won, but give my special congratulations to Jim Fantuzzo, who led the way.

With warm best wishes,

Sincerely,

Hugh Scott

Hugh Scott

From the beginning, the 1965 baseball season looked bright for Coach Marino and his mighty Lions. With another year of experience under the belt for 11 of his versatile players, the Lions were expected to improve. But how do you improve on a section championship team with a 10-1 record?

The Lions were determined that they could do so, and after finishing the first half of their schedule undefeated, they were established as the team to beat in section eight. But each attempt to do so by the opponents only further proved the Lions' supremacy. The second half of the season resembled the first, until the Lions suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Springdale Dynamos. However, the Lions came back and won their three remaining games. Thus the Arnold nine successfully defended their section title and began planning for the W.P.I.A.L. playoff games. Their plans must have been well laid. Greensburg, North Hills, and Gateway fell in rapid succession before the booming bats and stellar defensive play of the Lions.

Thus the stage was set for the big game of the year, the W.P.I.A.L. championship, against the Beaver Falls Tigers. The Lions brought a successful season to a glorious end by easily trouncing the Tigers 11-1.

Only one question remains to be answered. How do you improve on a W.P.I.A.L. Championship?

A Narrow Escape

A Happy Team

A Foiled Attempt

Diamond Daze

When you mention baseball, we say it's our game
For it is the one that brought us to fame.
With Coach Jim Marino close by our side,
We came back to our valley, bursting with pride.

At the "House of Thrills" on the sixteenth of June
We sent the Fallsmen to their doom.
Of "Big Jim Suskiewich" we'd heard tales
And after the first our faces had paled.

They went ahead in the first when "Suskie" scored
But they found the Lions could not be ignored.
For Coach had put "Fanny" on the mound
And we knew to victory we were bound.

The Lions went ahead 5 to 1 in the third
To disprove the tales of "Suskie" we'd heard.
Baroni was walked; then a single by "Maz";
"Fanny's" single scored Alan for happier days.

A bobble, a low pitch helped our John to score.
Joe walked. "Chick" bunted, "Fanny" scored one more.
Coyle safe on an error of a very nervous Tiger
Allowed two more runs and the score rose even higher.

The 4th opened with Alan getting hit by a ball;
"Maz" singled, "Fanny" tripled—for "Suskie" that's all!
He left the mound behind 8 to 1
But our roaring Lions still were not done.

They hit hard off Gray, in relief of poor "Suskie."
The Tigers tried hard, but our boys were too husky.
They scored 3 more runs to make sure of the prize;
They brought home the trophy—we're proud of our guys.

It was a day of frustration for the Beaver Falls nine,
But the Arnold High Lions were all feeling fine.
So "Suskie" was beaten, despite all the stories
And Arnold fans showered their heroes with glories.

Yes, our boys were all heroes—they never gave in—
"Maz," "Chick," and Joe all helped with the win
And "our boy Fanny" was bursting with pride,
"I'm never afraid with my coach by my side!"

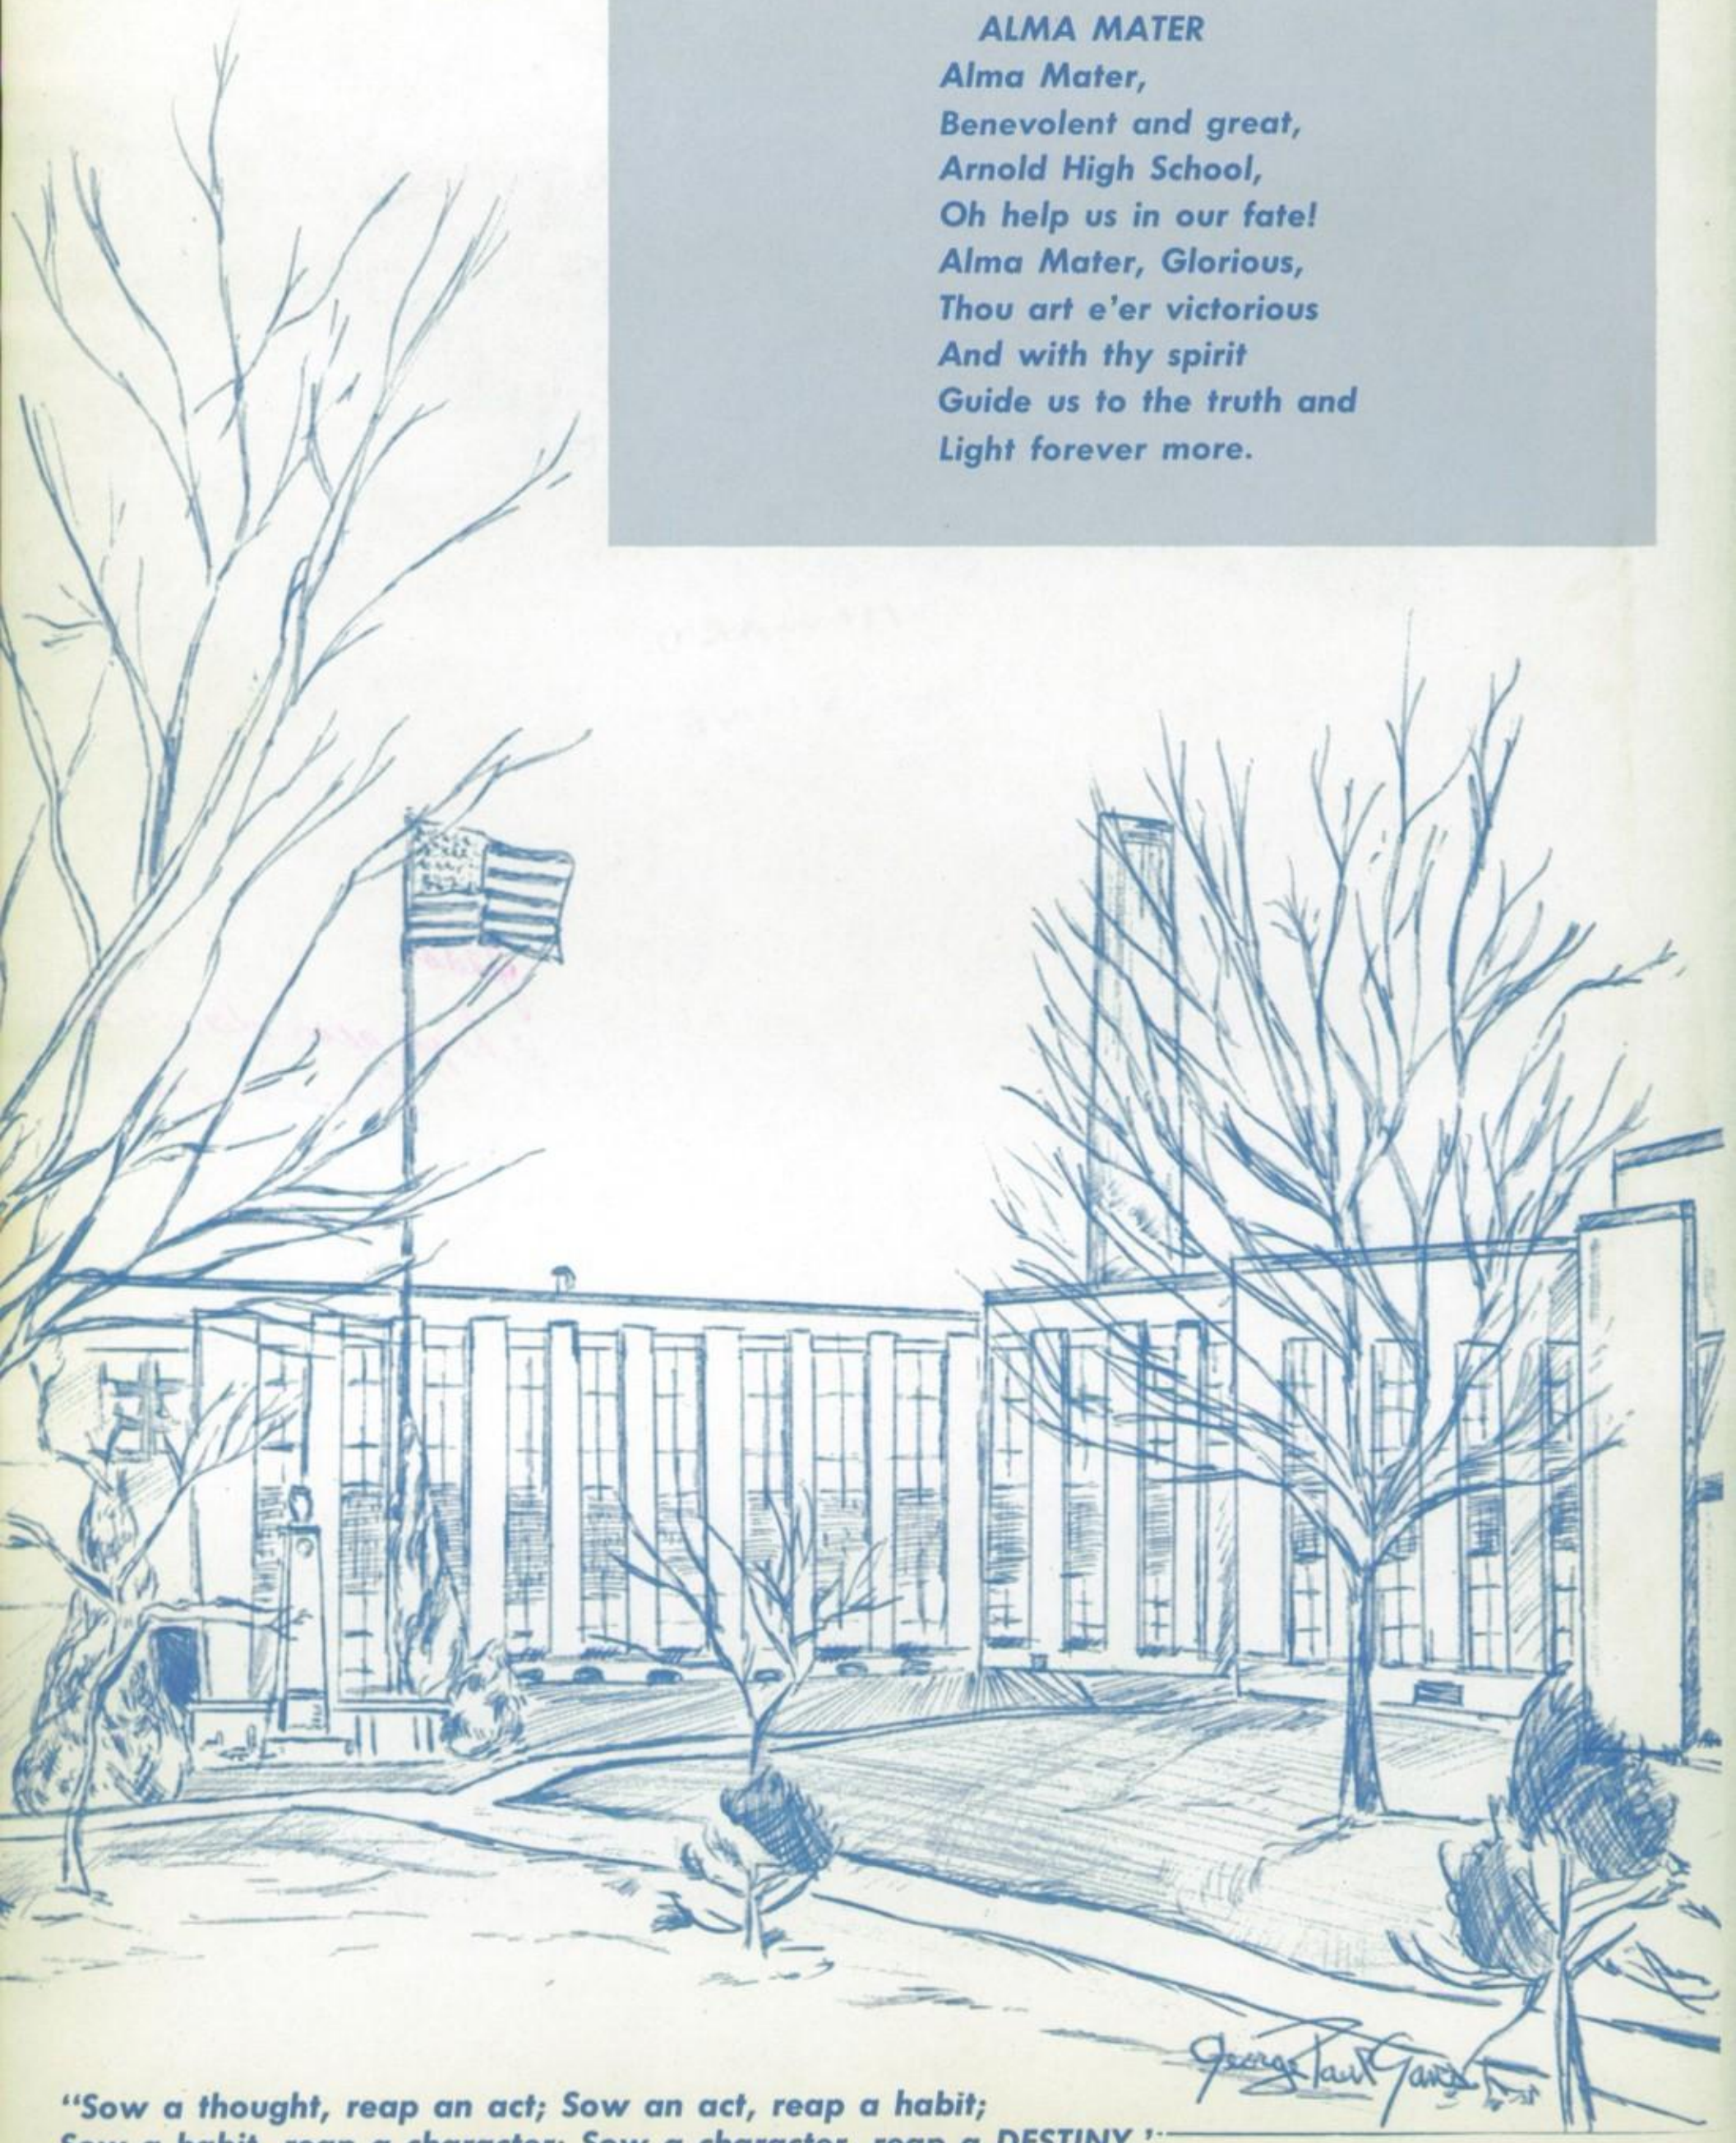
Congratulates
THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1966
and the
ARNOLD SCHOOL SYSTEM

The company as well as the employees are proud of having been a part of this community for over fifty years. Collectively we extend our best wishes to the graduating class of '66 for continued success in their respective fields of endeavor.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater,
Benevolent and great,
Arnold High School,
Oh help us in our fate!
Alma Mater, Glorious,
Thou art e'er victorious
And with thy spirit
Guide us to the truth and
Light forever more.



"Sow a thought, reap an act; Sow an act, reap a habit;
Sow a habit, reap a character; Sow a character, reap a DESTINY."

Jesse,

I'd real cute, sweet, nice boy that treats me as good as I deserve & thats better then I deserve. Remember all the times we had with Teddy & Patty which we had alot of fun to. I hope we have just as much fun in the future. Oh have fun in school & don't ever forget me. I wish you would be aloud to play on the football team cause you would be the best your built for it. Well have fun & Good Luck in everything you do. I would have written it in this yearbook but Patti had it.

Love
Arnell
